

WHY A MISSED CALL IS THE REAL LEAK

The claim you miss is usually not waiting around

After a property loss, homeowners look for help quickly. If your firm misses the first call, the next responsive firm may own the conversation.

Even one recovered claim can change the month.

ClaimCascade gives missed callers an immediate response, captures the basic loss details, and helps your team prioritize the callback before the opportunity goes cold.

We'll walk through this with your firm's actual call volume.
